

Evans L. and Liliane P. Anderson

Evans Lavere Anderson a son of Andrew B. Anderson and Hannah Evans Anderson was born September 17, 1897, in Vernal, Utah, where his father was teaching school. From there the family moved to Beaver. When Evans was nine years old they moved back to Lehi, where the family had resided prior to his birth.

Liliane Louise Pernoux Anderson, daughter of Louis C. and Alice Lauper Pernoux, was born April 1, 1902, at La Muids Vaud, Switzerland.

Evans and Liliane were married June 11, 1925, in the Salt Lake Temple. To them three sons and one daughter were born, Ralph Evans, Blaine P., Melvin P., and Marilyn.

Evans L. Anderson attended the Lehi Schools, and worked on his father's farm. As his life's occupation he chose farming, poultry raising, and dairying, specializing in pure bred holstein cows.

He was associated with Farm Bureau work many years acting as vice president of both local and county organizations.

He served as a missionary for the Latter-day Saints Church in the Central States mission from November, 1919, until April, 1922. Upon his return he was appointed president of the Fifth Ward Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association and was secretary to the Sixty-eighth Quorum of Seventy.

Moving to the First Ward in 1925 he was called to work in the Sunday School Superintendency. In August, 1928, he was set apart as First Counselor in the bishopric. March, 1935, he was released to become Stake Sunday School superintendent, serving until January, 1938, when he was set apart as bishop of the First Ward. He was bishop nine years, being released December 16, 1947. Since that time he has been supervisor of the Adult Aaronic Priesthood.

A lover of music he was associated with musical groups, as well as being a regular choir member.

In 1905, at the age of three years, Liliane Pernoux Anderson came to Utah with her widowed mother and grandmother. They came as converts to the Latter-day Saint Church. Her father was also a convert but had passed away in Switzerland, October 26, 1901. They made their home in Lehi where she attended the local schools. After graduating from the Lehi High School, she attended the Brigham Young University, then taught school in Lehi three years.

In a church capacity she served as a Sunday School teacher many years, a Mutual Improvement Association teacher, and a Relief Society literary class leader eighteen years. She was a first counselor and then president in both the Fifth and First Ward Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association. In 1943, she was asked to serve on the Relief Society Stake Board, and in 1947 as a counselor in the same organization.

She was a lover of beauty in nature. From early youth, gardening has been her hobby, having a natural ability to make things grow.
